Official GAA Summer Camps

Ballyholland Harps GAC

31st July - 4th August 2006

What is Cúl Camp?

Cúl Camp is the GAA's official summer camp.

At Cúl Camp, children receive 2 hours per day of Gaelic Games coaching, covering a different aspect of the games on each day.

Every Cúl Camp is run by experienced, quality coaches from a GAA background who have a proven record of interacting with children.

Who can go?

Any child from the area aged between 7 and 13 can attend Cúl Camp.

When is it?

Cúl Camp Ballyholland takes place from 10.00am until 2.30pm every day from Monday 31st July to Friday 4th August.

How much does it cost?

The cost is £35 per child. This fee is to cover the cost of the Cúl Camp gear, including jersey, shorts, socks and knapsack.

How can I sign up?

There are only 50 places available for Cúl Camp Ballyholland, and they will be allocated on a strictly first come, first served basis.
